

Hooghly admin starts interactive session for Kanyashree girls

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE

HOOGLHY, 29 APRIL

The district administration, under the initiative of district magistrate Dr Deepap Priya P for the first time has taken an innovative and unique step to bloom the latent talent among the Kanyashree girls through interactive sessions and workshops on quiz and debate on current topics.

Kanyashree project is one of the most successful projects of the state chief minister Mamata Banerjee for empowerment of females.

The teaching faculty of Bethune College have been tasked with the interactive session, quiz and debate for Kanyashree girls.

The headmistress of Serampore Girls High School Dr Ivy Sarkar, said it is a matter of great pride for us that in the entire district, Serampore Girls High School is the first school to start the innovative and unique interactive session for Kanyashree girls. Through this innovative move, our kanyashree girls can come across their hidden talent and master the skills to understand their world around them in a better manner and compete at a higher level.

Deputy collector, OC Kanyashree, Indrani Bhattacharya on the occasion, said, "Inspired by Mamata Banerjee, the Hooghly district administration has taken an innovative and unique step to organise these sessions, so that besides their ongoing studies they can bloom their hidden talent, become self-confident, self-reliant. Today, the first phase of the interactive session was initiated in Serampore Girls High School. It is an ongoing process in different phases in different schools of the district. We are happy that the teaching faculty of Bethune college have extended their helping hand and cooperation."

Professor Satarupa Bandyopadhyay, convener student activities cell at Bethune college, said as per the guidelines from the Kanyashree nodal office, we have come forward to play an active role in conducting interactive sessions and workshops for Kanyashree girls in the district.

On the occasion the school managing committee president advocate Biswajit Chatterjee was also present.

